In June the library was closed for three weeks, for repairs and cleaning. The ceiling was whitened, the walls retinted, and the shelves, woodwork and floor revarnished. The books were overhauled and cleaned, and 41 discarded, as they were beyond repair, and 9 were missing.

Very fine pictures of former Chief Justice Andrew Salter Woods and former Chief Justice Alonzo Philetus Carpenter, of the New Hampshire Supreme Court, have been added to our collection of portraits and hung in the reading room. The portrait of Judge Woods, who was a native son and lifelong resident of Bath, was presented by his granddaughter, Mrs. Amos N. Blandin. The portrait of Judge Carpenter, who was a resident of Bath from 1850 to 1884, was presented by his daughter, Mrs. Frank S. Streeter, of Concord.

BATH UNION SCHOOL DISTRICT

REPORT OF THE HEADMASTER

To the Superintendent of Schools:
Sir:

I hereby tender my report as Headmaster of the Bath Union High School.

The school year opened September 9, 1929 with a total enrollment of 28 pupils, 15 girls and 13 boys. This number was increased on September 24th when Frederick Reed was transferred from Colebrook Academy and entered the Junior Class. Miss Myrtle Aldrich left school October 11th on account of a serious attack of appendicitis and has been unable to resume her studies. Thus at present there are 14 girls and 14 boys enrolled. The other new members who entered the Freshman Class are as follows: Myrtle Aldrich, Alton Campbell, Angus Campbell, Josephine Chase, Eleanor Cox, Bessie Cox, Ida Moulton, and Roscoe Young. Also Miss Viola Carleton, who attended high school at Concord, Vt., last year, returned to school as a junior. The Freshman Class contain 8 members of which 3 come from Swiftwater, 2 from Nutter District, 1 from Lyman, 1 from Benton, and 1 from Plymouth. The sophomore Class contains 5 girls and 2 boys, and the Junior Class, 2 girls and 5 boys. There are 17 tuition pupils; 9 from Swiftwater District, 4 from Nutter District, 1 from Pettyboro District, 1 from West Bath District, 1 from Benton, and 1 from Bath District. Commencement exercises will be held in the town hall Thursday, June 12, 1930 and the following members of the Senior Class are expected to be graduated: Alvah Chase, Roland Campbell, Mary Clough, Arthur Gilbert Jr., Bernice Smith, Ervin Tewksbury, and Ruby Tewksbury.

During the summer vacation the cellar windows were cemented, but the suggested storm windows are still needed. Also the loose plaster on the walls and and ceilings was replaced by new plaster. The most needed improvement was the building of the new steps and the approach from the street to the school building. This approach is easier, safer and more attractive than the former "sky-line" route. This improvement was made possible by the purchase of the Moses property by a number of generous citizens of Bath from whom the School Board later bought this property. This Moses property extends from the school ground to the State Road and is bounded on the other two sides by the Grange property and the Hasting property. The property was not bought for the purpose of speculation but for the specific purpose of removing a source of danger to the health and reputation of Bath. With the removal of the buildings there is no longer any trouble in this locality. This transaction cost the option holders and also the School District $300, which certainly was money well spent. It is hoped that sometime in the near future the adjoining property will become less of an eye-sore than it is at present. The many dark and gloomy days this winter have made the electric lighting system very much appreciated by both the teachers and the pupils.

The new addition to the north end of the school grounds was a great incentive to baseball and this plot of land was well utilized for this purpose. However, much work remains to be done to make it a perfect location for a diamond. The baseball season last spring was fairly successful. Four games were won out of the six which were played with Haverhill, Groton, and Wells River High Schools.

Basketball is as popular as ever, and the new suits for the Girls' Team are very attractive and an incentive for a greater interest in basketball. Thus the Girls' Team have practiced hard and have won 5 of the 9 games played to date. The Boys' Team has been less successful, winning only 3 out of 10. An epidemic of mumps, the first in ten years, has seriously interrupted the remainder of the basket ball schedule. The main purpose of such games is to give the pupils physical training and exercise. Although games are far between the pupils continue to practice at least thirty minutes every day. In addition to the new suits, two new basket balls have been added to the athletic equipment.

As usual basket ball and baseball season are not financially successful, and the English Department under the capable guidance of Mrs. Chase has helped by means of the proceeds of various plays and parties. The most notable of the plays was "Oh, Kay!" which was presented last June. The other plays so far this school year have been "The Wedding Present" and "Let There Be Light." The annual publication "The Bath Union Spirit" was both a literary and financial success.

Few changes have been made in the curriculum and studies. Biology in the Freshman Class has been introduced to take the place of Bookkeeping and Arithmetic. The Economic Course has been broadened to include a half year of Sociology. The Student Government, the Literary Club, and the Science Club have been continued this year. The programs in the two clubs have taken the form of "A Tour of the World."

Place geography is included in scientific and literary facts pertaining to each country visited.

Changes have been made in the personnel of the teaching force in the school building. Miss Winifred Sargent, who had assisted for so many years the high school in both music and basket ball resigned to teach in the Junior High School of Woodsville. Both Miss Sargent and her services are greatly missed. Miss Saraph Darling of Peacham, Vt., has taken Miss Sargent's place and is popular with both her pupils and the young folks of the town. Miss Olive Christie has not lost any of her last year's popularity with her pupils and is doing good work with her much enlarged enrollment, which necessitates two separate sessions for the first two and the third and fourth grades. This arrangement has saved the town the expenses of either an additional teacher or the erection of another floor above the primary room.

Although there has been very little visiting of the high school by parents and friends, yet it is felt that all do have an interest in the teachers and pupils of the various schools. Perhaps, it also means that they have confidence that the pupils are receiving proper instruction and care. However, proper training cannot be given if the pupils do not attend school regularly. The attendance has been unusually poor this year and although some of it is due to sickness, many of the absences could have been avoided by the parents checking up on the real causes.

The usual cooperation and helpfulness has existed between the teachers, the School Board and Superintendent Page, who has done everything possible to improve the facilities for better education in the town of Bath.

Respectfully submitted,

WALLACE D. BLACK, Headmaster.

Since this report was written, this school district has been shocked by the news of Superintendent Page's illness and unexpected death from pneumonia. Mr. Page's long and faithful service of nineteen years in this district will never be forgotten and will be fully appreciated only as his kindly and helpful presence in all of our affairs is missed in the days and years to come. Many of the children of Bath have felt his guiding hand from the first grade until they left for normal schools and colleges; and he has been an inspiration to many to make the best of their limited opportunities. And Bath owes much to him for his part in encouraging so many to make names for themselves in the educational and business world. His interest and love for children of Bath was remarkable. He knew the name, age, character, and ability of every child from five years to twenty years of age; and was constantly eager to help them to secure an education.

Superintendent Page also passed on to the school board and his teachers his interests, ideals, and devotion to learning. He has been justly called the "Dean of Superintendents." Under his efficient supervision many green teachers have come to Bath and have been trained to make a success of their teaching in larger schools and towns. He has always been willing for his teachers to try out new methods; slow to adopt radical methods and to force them on his teachers; to adjust his ideas to those of the teacher; and always eager to help those who desired his assistance.

Superintendent Page's death will be felt keenly in many places outside of Bath. There is no doubt but that he has made many loving friends at Dartmouth College, from which he was graduated and has been an active alumnus; at Orford, Woodsville and Lisbon, where he spent his early years as headmaster; at University of New Hampshire, where he was an instructor at Summer School for a number of years; and among the larger associations of state wide superintendents, headmasters, and members of the State Board of Education.

At this time of universal sorrow, this school district of Bath, the various school boards, the teachers and their pupils extend their heartfelt sympathies to the members of Mr. Page's family; try to express their appreciation of the many ways in which his life has been a blessing; and hope that reconciliation to this loss will come with the realization that he has departed from among us in a blaze of glory for a well earned reward.

Very sincerely yours,
WALLACE D. BLACK, Headmaster.

Superintendent Page's death at the time when the Annual School Report was being compiled has interfered with the making of his interesting annual report. Thus this report has to be omitted, and attention is called to the the annual report by Headmaster Wallace D. Black, which is given above. The parts of the budget and school board report which he has been accustomed to make has been completed by the school board.
